EFCA/2015/D- 00228

To: Chairs of Advisory Councils

Subject: Seminar for Monitoring the Landing Obligation on 24-25 June 2015

Dear Chair,

As announced during the seminar on 4 March 2015 and confirmed during the latest EFCA Administrative Board meeting in Vigo, a follow up seminar on the monitoring of the landing obligation and its implementation will take place on 24-25 June in Roskilde, Denmark.

The intention of this seminar is to have an open exchange of views with the Member States, the Advisory Councils, the European Commission and EFCA on the implementation and monitoring of the landing obligation requirements after six months of its entry into force and to address the way forward. Day two will continue the discussion with only Member States, European Commission and EFCA. The general objective is to promote a proper monitoring of compliance with the landing obligation in the different EU regional areas as established in article 15 of Regulation 1380/2013 and to provide a forum for enhancing interregional cooperation, exchange of views and harmonization.

Thus, I would like to invite you to attend (or to be represented) the day one of the Seminar for the Monitoring of the Landing Obligation which would take place on 24 June 2015 in:

Vikingskibsmuseet (Viking Ship Museum)
Vindeboder 12, 4000 Roskilde, Denmark

The Agency will reimburse the travel and accommodation costs of two participants per Advisory Council.

The Agency has proceeded to a block reservation of hotel rooms in the Hotel Comwell Roskilde (Vestre Kirkevej 12, 4000 Roskilde, Denmark) valid until the 1st of May 2015.

European Fisheries Control Agency
